Who is this course suitable for?

This course is suitable for all women no matter what stage of Queen process you are in.

The 1-1 sessions are bespoke and I will meet you and your Queen at the appropriate point for you. If you are at the very beginning and lacking in confidence and purpose I will help you call her and give you the tools to begin your process of empowerment.

If you are in the final stages of sacralising your Queen and you would like another Queen beside you to give you structure and deeply encourage you as you cross over the finishing line, it is also for you.

The Queen and I will meet you in the place you are ready for.

@ramanjaofficial

What will I receive from the course?

I Am Queen will transform you completely into the stage of sovereignty you are ready for.

The carefully selected plant cleanses will transform you physically, mentally and emotionally giving you clarity of thought.

I Am Queen will call upon the deepest, most ancient and sacred part of your soul to empower you, connect you with both your divine light and dark feminine energy and fully embody your purpose.

What previous clients have to say

"The Queen Awakening course was an extraordinary journey of exploration of both forgotten and celebrated goddesses, expertly curated to welcome in our inner Queen. I came to the course searching for answers and have come out with a better knowledge of myself than I'd ever expected - Ramanja teaches us how to find the answers from within."

Naomi, London

*"Ramanja gave me support and guidance on creative ways to fully and soulfully connect with my Queen. There is no longer "I Am She and She Is There". We are one! I Am Queen and for this remembrance I am truly eternally grateful.
Thank you Ramanja."*
